Thesis Defence by Inmaculada Pérez Prieto

11/10/2023

On 11 October 2023, Inma Pérez defended her doctoral thesis, ‘Microbiome in women: a focus on physical activity and reproductive health’, the result of three years of research at the University of Granada.

This thesis was assessed by an international panel of experts, comprising Dr Andres Salumets, Dr Jonatan Ruiz and Dr Patricia Díaz, who awarded her the grade of ‘Outstanding Cum Laude’.

Following the defence, a celebration was held at the restaurant ‘Las Tomasas’, where guests enjoyed a meal with spectacular views of the Alhambra.

Congratulations, Dr Pérez!
